

SCIENTISTS WANTED

Student Name: _____

Date received: _____

Requirements	4	3	2	1
Accuracy and completeness	Information provided is correct. All facts are presented and easy to find.	Information provided is correct. 1-2 facts are missing, but are easy to find.	Information provided is correct. 3 or more facts are missing.	Information provided is incorrect. Several facts are missing.
Mechanics	No errors in spelling, grammar is correct and information was written in student's words. Writing is informative.	1-2 errors in spelling, with correct grammar. Information was written in student's words.	3 or more spelling and grammatical errors made. Information was written in student's own words.	Multiple spelling and grammatical errors made. Information was copied directly from research source.
Presentation	Poster shows effort, neatness and creativity. Poster was typed or neatly written in pen or marker.	Poster shows effort and creativity. Writing could have been neater. Pencil marks are obvious.	Poster lacks effort and creativity, but was typed or written neatly in pen or marker.	Poster lacks all effort, creativity and neatness.

Requirements	2	1	0	Choose 5	2	0
Full name of scientist				Quote about science by your scientist
Date of birth				Schools/colleges attended
Location of birth (city and country)				Awards received by your scientist
Picture				Family information
Date of death or current age				1-2 additional pictures of your scientist
Location where he/she completed work				Picture of what he/she worked on
One sentence explaining why he/she is famous in science				3 events occurring in history at the time of your scientist's discovery/invention
3-5 complete sentences explaining the accomplishments of the scientist in your own words				Name of scientists that he/she worked with
				Places named after your scientist
Name printed on the bottom right corner

Score: _____ / 40 = _____ %